2019 – The project goes in its final stretch!

Opening poles of excellence

The project funds the opening of poles of excellence in the beneficiary partner universities. These are unifying spaces for all university professional skills in the field of sustainable tourism.

The center of excellence is equipped with computer equipment and resources and has a specific staff trained in vocational guidance techniques and job search aids in order to optimize the employability of students..

KEY FIGURES

1 Interuniversity pole in Kyrgyzstan in Bishkek at the ADAM university

2 Poles in Vietnam: At Hanoi Agricultural University and at Hue University of Economics

1 Pole in China at University of Foreign Studies in Guangdong

The activities and productions carried out were presented to the International Steering Group No. 3 in Hanoi, Vietnam

The 3rd GPI of the project took place from February 18 to 22, 2019 in Vietnam. The partners exchanged in a friendly and multicultural atmosphere and could draw inspiration from the experience of each other in setting up the activities of the project.

The latest recommendations were given by the project coordinator and the European referents to finalize all the project results that will be presented during the last GPI in Bishkek in Kyrgyzstan from June 3rd to 7th, 2019.
